Abundance: The Future Is Better Than You Think - Peter H • Today [light] will cost less than a half a second of your working time if you are on the average wage: half a second of work for an hour of light! • Had you been using a kerosene lamp in the 1880s, you would have had to work for 15 minutes to get the same amount of light. • A tallow candle in the 1800s: over six hours' work.
