The play centres around the theme of truth manifested through the central character of the play i.e. Charandas, the Chor. Since Tanvir employed Chattisgarhi folk actors for the play, they brought along with them their tradition, culture and dialect, making it identifiable with the Satnami cult prevalent in Chattisgarh. The Satnami cult in

Our "Charandas Chor" is inspired by Vijaydan Detha's story, which is based on the Rajasthani folktale. Based on these texts and folklores our play has been devised and adapted by the director and actors of Samatat Sanskriti. The text has also been contextualized in the perspective of Bengal. This play is a tribute to Habib Tanvir who made it a classic.
