The Works Of O. Henry

In his short stories, O. Henry shows his ingenious conception while creating the plot. His works are full of humor and readers cannot help smiling or even laughing; but after that, what readers feel left in their hearts, is only sorrow. That's the reason why people agree with the phrase "smiles full of tears" so readily, when they think about his stories. On the other hand, while his

O. Henry's Surprise Endings - UKEssays.com

Why O. Henry named the story, Witch's Loaves? The title is ironic like many other stories of Henry. When we start with the title we do not expect the ending to be like this. And we do not expect the loaves to bring such happening. But actually many things are surprising in O. Henry's writing. There is one hint in the story that we can make it relevant with the topic: The man, Blumberger
