Sandlin's copy fetched $31,600 on eBay. The fun twist to this story comes from the fact that The Great U.S. 50 Yard Sale is generally free, but most potential buyers would be willing to pay a dollar or two parking/entry fee if they knew there were, say, 100 vendors in one spot. If the local Band Boosters can attract 100 vendors and charge them, say, $30 set-up fee for the weekend, that is $3,000. If 2,000 people visit and pay $2 entry fee each, that is another $4,000. The Garage sales are just one side of a very sexy, contraction-friendly dice. So we say get rolling. Good old fashioned game of Yahtzee, anyone? MAKING MONEY AT YOUR GARAGE SALE.
